

Field Order Operation Thunder Rider

Situation:

A) Enemy Forces:

The Enemy has two platoons of mechanized infantry equipped with 4 BTRs each. There are about 58 infantrymen in the school. The enemy is not able to reinforce his forces in the AO.

B) Friendly Forces

Our platoon consists of 2 IFV Rosomak and 2 IFV Puma and one MRAP which contains Platoon Command. Our current position is North- West of the Northern Airfield in Chernarus

C) Dropped

D) Dropped

Mission:

Our combined Polish and German forces are located in the north. There are two villages south that will be an aim for the Russian attack. The villages were taken by Polish infantrymen a few days ago. The Polish infantry platoons have not enough reinforcements for further defense. That's why our mission is to go south in order to support the defenders. We have to defend two friendly villages against attacks of expected Russian Mechanized infantry.

Execution:

Our plan consists of 4 phases.

PHASE 0: Equipment Appeal and march out

T+0 Briefing by Platoon CO

T+9 The vehicles and men are briefed by their NCOs

T+10 Opening of the Radio Frequencies

T+15 Mounting the vehicles

T+18 March out

Phase 1: Defence of first village

Motorized march to the first village. Alpha moves to the village with cover of Bravo, Charlie and Delta.

Alpha tries to make contact with the polish forces in the village.

After Alpha has linked with the infantry the other APCs also move in. The infantry dismounts and the units dig in.

ALPHA and BRAVO: Are securing the parameter to the South West
--

Charlie secures East

Delta secures West

Two Men of Delta move out to secure the northern parameter where we came from.

Phase 2: Attack on second village

Motorized March to the next village.

Delta and Charlie will overwatch while Alpha and Bravo will fast approach to the village.

The Rosomaks have to move fast to the walls and the infantry dismounts. The first two infantry groups will take the first 2 compounds, whilst the Rosomaks move back to the Pumas. Then the Rosomaks will cover the Advance of Charlie and Delta.

Charlie will dismount in the North-Eastern part of the village.

Delta will dismount on the North- Western side of the village.

All groups advance to the school.

When the enemy is compromised in the school the Pumas will advance into the village with the cover of the infantry and fight the enemy in the school.

Phase 3: Defence of third village

When the Village is taken Charlie and Delta will cover the south

Alpha will cover to the west

Bravo will cover to the east.

A part of Alpha infantry will cover the north where we came from

Administration/ Logistics

A) Enemy POWs will be taken, disarmed, cuffed and concealed in a central position. Polish Infantrymen of the first village will guard them.

Casevac is not available. In case of high arise of injuries in the platoon the collection of wounded will be organized by the Medic of HQ Unit.

B) Logistics

If needed apply for by platoon CO.
